fr. Austin gave notice of his intention of introfacing a joint resolution, to-morrow, providing for ent of a joint committee of the two to consider the Revised Code. REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Hollister from Committee on Elections reported adversely to the petition against C. H. Kakani, the ember elect for Hana, Maui. There was no proof of fraud, and the committee recommended that the etition be laid on the table. Adopted.

Mr Austin from the select committee on the ad dress to the King, reported that they had presented to the writer than the petition, but the petitioners do the same to His Majesty, who was pleased to express his thanks.

Besides Jews there are many Buddhists, Brahmins, Mahommedans, Parsees and Pagans, also infidels to every form of faith on these islands, all of whom are forced to observe, to them, an irreligious custom, as repugnant to their spiritual notions as unprofitable in a worldly sense. Notwithstanding my prejudices in fovor of our present puritanical law in regard to the observance of the Sabbath, I must confess the petitioners are very reasonable, perticularly in the application to this country, where the people are so eager to avail themselves of such laws for the sake of obtaining the penalty or for the more detestable motive of currying favor with their spiritual guides. Excuse me, Mr. Editor; when I took pen I had not the most distant notion of saying anything about d dollars for the expenses of the Legislature petitions, but merely to correct a statement that might possibly be believed by some of your readers, perpetrated by one of your correspondents signing himself "Kona."

No people can have a higher opinion of Kona coffee than the people of Hilo. We willingly and cheerfully admit that Kona coffee is equal to any coffee in the world, not excepting the celebrated Mocha; in fact we believe it to be superior to Mocha. In conceding moneys which the members knew would never be ex- thus much we do not wish to be understood to have a poor opinion of our own coffee. We know that if Hilo coffee is properly cured it is equal to the best coffee of commerce, the Kona and Mocha excepted. I have no doubt "Kona" expressed what he be-

Mr. Hollister coincided with Mr. Sheden and thought that it would be more sensible for members to defer the subject of appropriating moneys until the sary for me to say, that "Kona" has much less opinion of the sagacity of Honolulu merchants than Hilo has to suppose they could thus easily be taken in. I have no doubt there has been plenty of Hilo coffee sold as Kona, but not to Honolulu merchants. The Hilo coffee crop will be light this year. Yours, &c., > there is a prospect of the country being cursed with a high tariff,—as high as 15 per cent. on a large class of merchandise,-while the duty on that curse to the country-liquors-is to be reduced.

I, for one, consider this a suicidal policy for the country, and that it should not be adopted; and I trust the Legislature will be slow in substituting a policy which has worked well for one which I have not a doubt will be the means of causing a stagnation in business, of driving away ships, and of greatly diminishing the enterprise of the country.

As the Legislature seems about to be "bluffed off," and their services dispensed with in carrying on the affairs of the nation, will it not be well for the representatives of the people to understand their position, and not emasculate themselves by allowing two or at Waimes as well as Hilo; for a property tax; for a the rights of the people and of the business commulaw to prevent married couples forsaking each other; nity are considered of less importance than a stand-
